Ladies suffering from nervousness, sleepless-FORTUNE TELLER,

MISCELLANEOUS.

Nothing adds more to the security of life, of happiness, and of health, than a safe and reliable family medicine. S. L. R. has won for itself the appellation of "the family blessing." If a child has the Colic, it is sure, safe and pleasant. If the father is exhausted, overworked, debilitated, it will restore his failing strength. If the wife suffers from Dyspepsia, Low Spirits, Headache, it will give relief. If any member of the family has eaten anything hard to digest, a dose of the Regulator will soon establish good digestion. It gives refreshing sleep, even in cases where narcotics have failed. It is a preventive, perfectly harmless to begin with, no matter what the attack it will afford relief. No error to be feared in administering; no injury from exposure after taking; no change of diet required; no neglect of duties or loss of time. Simmons Liver Regulator is entirely vegetable, and is the purest and best family medicine compounded. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., proprietors. o6-lpiyMWF&wly

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.] SHORT STRIKE.

End of the Strike on the Tulare Division of the S. P. SAN FRANCISCO, May 5tb .- A conference occurred in this city this afternoon between General Manager A. N. Towne, of the Southern Pacific Company, and a commit-tee representing the brakemen. After the conference, which lasted not more than twenty minutes, Mr. Towne said that a sat-isfactory understanding had been reached; that the men had returned to work, and that everything was moving along as usual. It vas learned from another source that the men supposed that the new method of reckoning their time would result in a reduction of their wages. Mr. Towne showed them that this was a misunderstanding, and they were then satisfied.

TRAINS TO GO OUT AT ONCE. Tulare, May 5th -The strike is over. The conducters Beer and Warner and brakeman Barber accompanied Superintendent Coddington and Mr. Fulmere to San Francisco this morning. A consultation was held and the difficulties adjusted. The strikers received a telegram from their O. K.; go to work." The whistles blew for ring up, and the trains will run out as fast as possible. The terms of settlement are unknown here. No disturbances have oc-curred and good feeling prevails.

THE SIEBERT INQUEST.

The Carver Brothers Exonerated From Any Criminal Intent.

BAKERSFIELD, May 5th.—The Coroner's ury in the case of R. M. Siebert finished heir investigation last night. The documentary evidence before them was the let-ter of Faber, the memorandum book of the eased, and an affidavit of Alfred P. Ellis to the effect that he had known him in this county since April 2d; that he was a search of land; that he told him that he borders of Tulare county.

Santa Rosa Items SANTA ROSA, May 5th.-Haying has commenced in many parts of the county, reatly improved the prospect and insured a good average yield.

Last night and to-day many people have ttended the closing exercises of Finley's Santa Rosa Ladies College Athenseum. The public performances of the young adies were very creditable, and were nighly enjoyed by the audience. There were only two graduates, Misses Julia V. Cannon and Allena Talbot. South Coast Echoes

SAN LUIS OBISPO, May 5th .- The Mexican population of this city observed the 5th of May by displaying numerous flags and indulging in fireworks. Reports from over the county regarding crops are extremely flattering. Should not hot, drying north winds prevail the harvest will be quite large along the coast, and the yield will be above the erage on summer-fallow land in the rthern part of the county.

The Best He Could Have Done. MONTEREY, May 5th .- Jake Hamel, ative of California, about 30 years of age, committed suicide last night by shooting mimself in the head. He had been drinkg for several days, and went home about o'clock last night and went into his ther's room for some matches. When she went into his room in the morning she ound him lying on the floor with a bullethole in his head and the pistol by his side. Hamel was a worthless fellow, and had een supported by his mother, an old lady 70 years of age, and of unsound mind. He was in the habit of going home drunk and beating her when she did not have what he desired.

Racing at Fresno. FRESNO, May 5th .- At the races to-day he first was a running race, mile and repeat, between Oro, Barney and Prince. The first heat was won by Barney in 1:48, and he second and third heats by Oro in 1:50 The second race was a mile dash between Johnny Gray, Napoleon, Belle B. and Mollie Gray. The horses came home in he order named. The third race was trotting and pacing between Patchen T., Zero and Fresno. The irst heat was won by Zero in 2:40, Fresno istanced. The next three heats were won by Patchen T. in 2:30, 2:371 and 2:39. The Coming Bench Show. San Francisco, May 5th .- At a meeting f the Pacific Kennel Club last evening schedule of prizes for the dog show to be given by the club; that a prize of $10 for first and $5 for second should be offered, with special prizes of $10 for the best dogs setters, terriers, pointers and greyhounds. The recommendation was adopted. In the chedule there are twenty four breeds, subdivided into eighty-four classes. The whole requiring each member to advance $5 to defray expenses of the bench show. A Case of Small-Pox.

San Francisco, May 5th.—A case of nall-pox was developed in the city to-day, the victim being Charles H. Wescott, a night inspector of customs, who lives with his family at 444 Twentieth street. He is the officer who inspected the steamer City of Sydney, and doubtless contracted the isease from the Chinese patient on board. Chamber of Commerce Banquet. San Francisco, May 6th—[Special.]— The first banquet of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the Palace Hotel this evening. The most prominent merchants of the city and highest municipal officials were present. Speeching-making was continued until a late hour in the morning.

Poisoned by Buttermilk. OROVILLE, May 5th .- Yesterday three itlemen connected with the firm of Perkins & Wise drank some fresh buttermilk sent them by a friend. Shortly afterward all were taken violently ill, and a physician had to be called. They were out of danger, but still very sick. There was evidently something poisonous in the buttermilk, but what it was no one can imagine The three gentlemen were D. K. Perkins. W. L. Perkins and R. W. Smith.

The Pistol Gets Away With the Stone. EL PASO (Tex.), May 5th.-Edgar Boungny, of New Orleans, recently a resident of the City of Mexico, shot and killed a ne-gro barber named Alfred Kenard here to-day. Kenard was called to the Vendome Hotel to shave a friend of Boulingny's, named Barcolte, also from New Orleans, who is too lame to leave his room. The barber charged a dollar. He was offered 75 cents, but refused it. He went away, and a little later he met Boulingny outside the botel Kagard raised as too and he hotel. Kenard raised a stone and threw it at Boulingny, who shot Kenard just as he threw the stone. Boulingny is in jail. He is a member of one of the oldest and best-known Creole families of New Orleans. His father was a member of Congress and a Judge.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

A PARTISAN BLUNDER.

[Record-Union's Special Cablegram—Copyrighted by the New York Tribune.] LONDON, May 5th .- The Government is probably by this time aware that they have made a mistake in dealing with the Times' charges against the Parnellites. Whether they are technically right or wrong in holding it not to be a matter of privilege, they are regarded as hopelessly wrong. If ighbreds was continued to-day. The the question be considered merely one of fair dealing, the the Government's own leading journal condemns them unsparingly, and ridicules as a make-shift their proposal to lend the Attorney-General to the Parnellites as their prosecutor. That course, says the Standard, is neither practicable nor justifiable. It is not practical, because it is known the Irish could refuse; and it is not justifiable because no public offense has been committed. A subsequent offer to let the Irish choose their own counsel and solicitors did not much mend matters. The Irish could do that without the help or permission of the Government. What has damaged the Parnellites with the English public has been their refusal the English public has been their remain to take proceedings for libel against the Times. The English said that Par-nell and his colleagues had sat down under charges intolerable to nonogable men. They never pleaded their they had not money enough to pay for the luxury of the law, so the Government's offer to bear the expenses of a trial is no boon. As things stand there is a deadlock. The Government offer what the Irish do not want, and the Irish demand what the Government profess to be unable to concede. To bring the printer of the Times to the bar of the House would not advance anybody's interest. If his charges were an offense against the privilege, prov-ing them true would not make them less

No nember rising to speak on the motion of Lewis, that the conduct of the Times was a should take notice of it, Speaker Peel put before the House the amendment of Sir Edward Clark, Solicitor-General, that the House decline to treat the Times publica ion as a breach of privilege. He moved as an amendment that a com-mittee be appointed to inquire into the charge of willful falsehood against Dillon in the Times on Monday. He said he did peyond the article referred to. He objected o Lord Randolph Churchill calling him the leader of the party of separation. He perfectly understood why Lord Randolph did not call it the party of Home Rule. There was a future before Lord Randolph, in which the home rule plans might figure as convenient to propose. [Qheers]. Turning to the question of privilege, he said it was unfortunate that the Government prcposed the present step against an Irish member while inflicting upon the Irish peo-ole-by means of a permanent coercion THE BRAND OF PERPETUAL DISHONOR. Why take the case into a Court of law? Was it certain that Dillon would get a verdict, whatever might be the proof, in a case where Parliament had declared the charges against the member was no breach of priviege? Nearly thirty years ago he went as a Times then said the Ionian Assembly was committing treason, and that the Commissioner was aiding and abetting the Assem-bly. He thought these charges required edress. He took the best advice on the object, but all his advisers said he could ot depend upon securing a fair verdict. The rish members would be in a still more unfavorable position in a jury trial, and it was no wonder they preferred the tribunal of the House. The House was a perfectly olete one. Precedents are all on the side of the apointment of a committee. There was the ase of Butt, in 1854, when it was held that the accusation that members were hungry and pensions, deserved inquiry. After citing a number of other precedents, in all of which the charges were less grave than brought against Dillon, he challenged the Government to establish a single precedent where a prosecution could be ordered with demned the act upon which the prosecu-tion was based. He appealed to Government to alter their ation, which otherwise might lead to a crisis of most serious and momentous importance. Irish members who have been maligned to an enormous extent asked for particular course, which the majority reused, forgetting that they were acting ngainst a minority representing the nation. MISDIRECTED ENERGY.

While neither assailing nor defending the method adopted by the Legislature for the distribution of the State school books, because of overshadowing matters of greater concern regarding the school book system, we suggest to our vivacious contemporary, the San Francisco Post, that its sensational assaults upon the law come late. If the Post had kept its eyes open it would have been aware of the text and full meaning of the bill during all the weeks it was before the Legislature, and it should then have entered more vigorous protest against it, if it is as unwise as it maintains it to be. There was demand for some method additional to that of the "revolving fund," for many county authorities deliberately ignored that law. It was only by the exercise of the greatest vigilance, and the utmost devotion and urgency by the friends of the new school book system that the Legislature was prevented from doing it absolute harm-such was and is the power of the book publishing syndi-

This journal, which well nigh alone fought the battle for the new system when considered as an amendment to the Constitution, and has been watchful of its interests from the outset, will acknowledge no influence more earnest for the preservation of that system. Wherever and whenever assailed, the RECORD-UNION will be found defending it. We suggest to our San Francisco contemporary that the diverions, such as its course tends to create, are precisely what the enemies of the system desire. If all details are not just now to its liking, let it await the assembling of another Legislature for their correction. In the meantime, its energies will be of greater service to the public if directed in resistance to the tactics and schemes of the common enemy. That opponent is industrious in disseminating the idea that the new text-books are ill compiled, below accepted standards, poorly printed and worse bound; that the cost to the State exceeds the revenue from them, and that the exposed heaps of decaying vegetable new whistle. The distribution law is the law, and until a new Legislature assembles it must remain: but the enemies of the whole system from top to bottom are tireless, and secretly working to cultivate a sentiment among the people antagonistic to it. They must be beaten, exposed and driven back, unless we are content that the school-book leeches shall again fasten upon every county and city Board of Education, manipulate local politics, corrupt our teachers, disburse coin among officials in bribery, and succeed in and exceedingly expressive: forcing California again to pay a halfmillion of tribute annually to the Eastern

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Tramps in Washington. The nine tramps convicted in the Police city, made their way across the bridge to Washington at once, and there became exceedingly disagreeable. They visited Constable Frommelt's store and saloon, and while that gentleman was drawing the beer they ordered, he heard one of them operating at his till. He returned into the saloon and examined it, having seen one of the men remove his hand from it as he came in. A small sum of money was taken, and | 8 a bottle of liquor. There was not a man in sight on the street, and as he did not care to attempt an arrest against the whole party, he contented himself by getting rid of them as soon as possible. Subsequently he arrested one of them for bothering an old tinsmith who lives over there, and in Justice Bright's Court yesterday morning the fellow was convicted of vagrancy and sentenced to 90 days in the county jail, but the commitment was withheld to give him opportunity to leave town, and he came to Sacramento. Dan. Fayhe, who has been a nuisance in Washington for a long time, and only latterly finished a term of impresentations. prisonment, received a similar sentence and like conditions. He attempted to com-pel the Constable to open the lock-up the night before and release the other individual. Some of the party of tramps got into serious trouble with citizens yesterdaymorn ng, and one of them stood a good chance of being pummeled to death but for From nelt's interference. They all concluded the place had become unpleasantly disagrreable, and took their departure, three returning to this city. The tinsmith re ferred to above has a hard time of it with the tramps. He is generous, and, acting upon that fact, the light-baggage gentry have posted at various places frequented by them in this city and vicinity, "Go to Washington and tap the tinker. The Grangers' Picnic.

The Grangers' annual picnic was held at Beach's Grove, eight miles down the river, yesterday. Such a gathering of sturdy, well-to-do, cheerful-looking and self-contented Todhunter's stable $15, field $2. people is only seen at the Grangers' re-unious. They came from all parts of the county, some traveling fifty miles to attend. The collection of vehicles and horses was field $5. nearly as great as that of people. The grove was literally filled with these instruments of transportation. The day was delightful, and the arrangements complete in every detail, the music of the Artillery band never better, the people in the happiest frame of mind, the games numerous, largely engaged in and hotly contested. Excursion and Land Sale. Easton & Eldridge, auctioneers of San Francisco, announce an excursion from that city by steamer Constance, on Saturday, the 14th inst., at 7:50 A. M., to attend a sale of the Fly Ranch, six miles southwes from Napa City, which will take place under the auspices of the Pacific Coast which will be disposed of in subdivisions of 35 to 100 acres each. The property is favorably located, being about one mile west from Judge Stanley's noted orchard and vineyard, with the proposed railroad from Santa Rosa to Benicia, and the branch road from the S. F. and N. P. to Napa running through or near it, There is also landing on the property, where sail vessels and steamers convey the products of the section to San Francisco. The land is lo-cated upon the Napa river, is well watered, and the soil is exceedingly rich. The sec-tion is well adapted to fruit of all kinds The vine grows to perfection and the cereal yield of the county cannot be excelled. Particulars of the sale are given in adver-

Boys will be boys, and ere they are a dozent years old cost parents, schoolmaster and clothier no small amount of thought.

For us the perplexing problem is: "What will he like? What will his parents like?"

Our answer is: In a heavy stock of substantial clothing—the best work of the best makers. There are a thousand and one little points about such clothing to be seen, not read about. But in a general way we have sought to express this thought in our clothing-that the boy should not be a caricature of a man; that his infant life should not be dwarfed with the garments of maturity, but that there should always linger about his dress something of a child-like grace and simplicity. And it is this happy touch, as well as conscientious workmanship and low prices which gives the doings of this department such vigor and life.

the most important, as well as prolitable, fields of horticultural enterprise with us, as it is at present with many countries in the south of Europe, whose chief revenue is derived from the export of olive oil and pickled olives.

The olive tree is distinguished for its The olive tree is distinguished for great longevity and vitality. A tree in the garden of the Vatican, at Rome, is said to be a thousand years old. During the Greek revolution the Turks cut down the olive trees and burned over the stumps, with the result that three years thereafter the shoots from the scarred stumps commenced to give a crop.

It has generally been supposed that the olive rather prefers a rocky and somewhat barren soil. In Europe it certainly flourishes in places where a cactus would hardly grow, but Major Utt says it is a great mistake to presume that the olive can be grown on barren soil without fertilizers. Use manure liberally, and use it to an extreme degree, to supplant the lack of irrigation. The olive is a voracious feeder, and will appropriate enough plant food during the months of winter moisture to carry the tree through the dry summer season. promonths of winter moisture to carry the tree through the dry summer season, provided there is an abundant food supply ready for storage and assimilation. The on is generally recommended for oil and the European olive for pickling. The latter, also, is preferable for propagation, as the small limbs will serve for cuttings, and will root where a Mission cutting will fail. European olives ripen two months in advance of the Mission olives. Trees should be planted in an orchard, and cuttings in a nursery. Plant no less than thirty-six feet apart, or you will regret it in after years; remember in planting that the olive root is more sensitive to exposure than the orange.

The olive is easily budded or grafted, as there is no trouble in obtaining varieties.

Small, one-year-old trees can be bought for twenty-five cents or less each. The roots of trees should always be puddled before shipping, and great care taken against exposure. The business of propagating the trees should be left to the nurserymen, ex-cept in a case where a party cannot afford to

When it comes to profits, olive growers can show figures which should satisfy the nost exacting. Major Utt has an olive orchard of twenty-five bearing trees, planted orchard seven years, to include 1886; the oduct from ten of them last year was 750 llons of olives. He sold the surplus crop at forty cents per gallon, casks furnished, of $12 per tree. Fifty gallons of average crop to the tree at twelve years from the plant-ing of the orchard would be a low estimate, and this amount would make six and a quarter gallons of oil. Ellwood Cooper gets $10 a gallon for his oil. Increased duction will lower the wholesale price to $4 per gallon, or at the lowest, $25 per tree, equal to $900 per acre. Allow onehalf for expenses and interest on investment, and you have the neat sum of $450 per acre as net profit. Mr. Loop has been ered 80 cents a gallon for all the pickled ives he can prepare for market. Of the great future which awaits the alture of the olive on this coast there can

"IMPOSTED" CIGARS.

Domestic "Alfalfas" Palmed off as the True Foreign Staff.

Washington, May 5th.—Assistant Secretary Maynard has instructed the customs officers to see that domestic cigars exported for the purpose of being reimported are not admitted to entry under the provisions of Section 2500, but to require them to be turned over to the Collector's of Internal Revenue for such procedure as may be found expedient under the internal revenue laws. This action is based upon information that a system exists of sending cigars manufactured in San Francisco to British Columbia and then returning them to San Francisco, under the provisions of Section 2500 of the Revised Statutes. They are then stamped with custom stamps bearing the words "Domestic Cigars—Reimported." A good market for these cigars is found in St. Louis, where they are usually sold as imported cigars. Purchasers see the import stamps, but fail to notice the inscription thereon.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from proorietary medicines, no doubt has largely penefited the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75-cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample
